Important Message Regarding Your Variable Annuity Contract!

You are the owner of an IMPACT Variable Annuity contract (“Contract”) issued by The Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company (“VALIC”). VALIC no longer files a registration statement for the Contract and, as a result, does not prepare a product prospectus for your Contract.

As required pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission regulations, VALIC will mail or email, if you elected to receive regulatory documents through electronic delivery, (i) current prospectuses for each of the funds offered in the Contract as investment options, any prospectus supplements, all proxy materials and other shareholder materials, (ii) financial statements of VALIC and VALIC Separate Account A, American Home Assurance Company (“American Home”), and (iii) semi-annual and annual reports of the funds offered in the Contract.

Contracts issued on or before December 29, 2006, are guaranteed by American Home, an affiliate of VALIC. These documents may be mailed to you in separate packets. You may receive additional prospectuses at a later date. In addition, supplements to your Contract prospectus or fund or portfolio prospectuses may be included in this mailing.

Be sure to read and retain any prospectus supplements, fund prospectuses and financial statements. These documents contain valuable information concerning each fund that can help you make informed decisions about your Contract. Please note that not all fund companies issue their prospectuses on the same date, and additional fund related documents may be received at a later date.

You can choose to “go paperless” if you wish. Receive secure, paperless, electronic notification when your retirement account statements, transaction confirmations, and certain regulatory documents are available online through our secure connection, PersonalDeliver-e[®]. Managing these items electronically is faster and more secure than paper mail.
